

Technology Training that Works

Practical Specification and Technical Writing for Engineers and Technical People

Contents

01	Introduction	01
1.0	Introduction	03
1.1	What is technical writing? What makes it unique?	06
1.2	Objectives of technical writing (ABC's of writing)	08
1.3	Categories of readers	09
1.4	Effective communication	12
1.5	Expressing versus impressing	14
02	The Development Process	17
2.1	Preparing to write	19
2.2	Organizing the writing	27
03	Language and Words	47
3.0	Readability	49
3.1	Clarifying the writing	49
3.2	Choice of vocabulary	55
3.3	Simplifying the writing	77
04	The Elements of Technical Wwriting	81
4.0	The elements of technical writing	83
4.1	Technical definitions	83
4.2	Technical descriptions	84
4.3	Technical instructions	91
05	Formats of Technical Writing	95
5.0	Types of technical reports	97
5.1	Formal report	98
5.2	Technical memo report	133
5.3	Other technical documentation	140
06	Design Specifications	151
6.0	Specifications and design	153
6.1	Design process	154

Technology Training that Works

07	Specification Writing	183
7.0	Introduction	185
7.1	Fundamentals of specification writing	187
7.2	Planning to write the specification	188
7.3	Preparing the specification	189
7.4	Specification database	190
7.5	Structure of technical specifications	194
7.6	Specifications and contracts	216
7.7	Checking the specification	221
7.8	Types of specifications	228
7.9	Writing the specification	232
7.10	Do's and don'ts of specification writing	248
7.11	Specification checklist	249
7.12	Summary	252
<hr/>
08	Final Presentation	255
8.0	Appearance of the document	257
8.1	Text and design	258
8.2	Visual aids	262
8.3	Most common formats of graphics	264
8.4	Illustrations	274
8.5	Tips for using illustrations/graphics	277
8.6	Transferring information from notes to graphics/graphics to notes	278
<hr/>
09	Oral Presentation of Technical Documents	281
9.0	What is communication?	283
9.1	Motivation and attention	284
9.2	Preparing your presentation	285
9.3	Make a positive impact	290
9.4	Use presentation aids effectively	294
9.5	Maximizing delivery	305
9.6	In summary	312

List of Tables and Figures

Bibliography

Appendix A: Cause and effect method

Appendix B: Example of a web specification
